

Tired

By: Annika Morschauser

8:28

clocked out

don't ask another question

time to pack up

time to hit the road

and throw my head on my pillow

but i can't

not until 9

am i free

of this place from this desk

from the questions

8:46

my eyes are drooping

retinas burned with blue light

type type type

skim, scribble, scrawl

hope that i remember it all

tomorrow

i forgot about that one thing

due at 11:59

plenty of time

but energy is lacking

8:59

so close yet so far away from my dorm

and away from the noise

i'll finally be

11:13

how is it 11:13?!?

i don't remember the walk in the dark back to my dorm card and keys still in pocket

574 words written

with 826 left to go

only 46 minutes to do it in
